~In Sri Lanka

- The attention of the world is focussed on Sri Lanka following a series of devastating bombings that targeted Christian believers on Easter Sunday morning. At last count, more than 350 people have died The worship services of three churches were hit, Immediately following the attacks, scheduled services were cancelled for many churches and a government curfew was imposed throughout the country While Christians in Sri Lanka frequently face opposition for their faith, it is most commonly from Buddhist groups that are opposed to the growing influence of Christianity in this predominantly Buddhist nation. As they struggle to come to terms with this horrible situation may our Heavenly Father comfort them and grant them peace that passes all understanding. May the militants responsible for the attack come to the point of sincere repentance.
